

Bloodborne Pathogens

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. What are bloodborne pathogens?

2. The two most common bloodborne diseases in the workplace are:

- a. Hepatitis A and HIV
- b. Malaria and Hepatitis B
- c. HIV and Ebola
- d. HIV and Hepatitis B

3. What must be present in order to be exposed to a potential bloodborne disease?

- a. _____
- b. _____

4. List at least two methods of transmission for bloodborne pathogens.

- a. _____
- b. _____

5. Hepatitis B is preventable by a vaccination that is free to employees that are at risk in their work environment?

- a. True
- b. False

6. If a person has come in contact with a contaminated substance (blood on disposable rubber gloves), what must that person do when he/she takes the gloves off?

_____.

7. A person cuts himself/herself on a piece of broken glass. The person is bleeding on the floor and also on a work bench.

- a. What are the first things that you should grab from the first aid kit to provide care? _____
- b. Where should you dispose of the gloves? _____
- c. What do you do about the surfaces that are contaminated? _____
- d. Where do you dispose of the glass? _____

8. A student must provide his/her own PPE (personal protection equipment), but the instructor must inspect it before use.

- a. True
- b. False

9. What is meant by the term Standard Precautions or Universal Precautions?
